

Books by Random House Author Shelley Pearsall

THINGS SEEN FROM ABOVE NEW! Amazon Best Books of the Month selection, ages 9-12

What happens when a sixth grade girl discovers a fourth grade outcast with a surprising gift? How does that discovery change everything? A tale of friendship, nonconformity, and the power of creativity.

Curriculum connections: Family and Community, Friendship, Visual-Spatial Learners, Art. Recommended for Grades 4 to 7.
Available in hardcover and audio book.

THE SEVENTH MOST IMPORTANT THING American Library Association (ALA) Notable Book Kirkus Best Book of the Year

The story of how a crime brings together an angry, thirteen-year-old boy and a reclusive neighborhood artist...and how the surprising outcome changes both of their lives forever. Starred reviews in School Library Journal and Booklist.
"Luminescent." — Kirkus Reviews, starred.

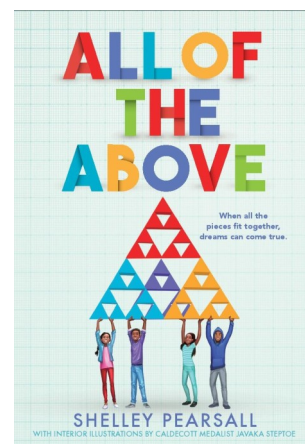

Curriculum connections: MakerSpace, Art and Artists, Family and Community.
Recommended for Grades 5 to 8.

ALL OF THE ABOVE (Hachette Books) American Library Association (ALA) Notable Book ALA Quick Pick for Reluctant Readers

A great STEM choice! Inspired by actual events, the novel follows the lives of four students in a Cleveland middle school and their quest to set a world math record. Filled with unexpected humor, poignant characters, and some tasty recipes to enjoy. "This tale sparkles..." -- Publishers Weekly

Read aloud in one day! Find out more at www.onebookoneday.com

Curriculum connections: STEM, MakerSpace, Geometry, Family and Community
Recommended for Grades 4 to 7.

TROUBLE DON'T LAST

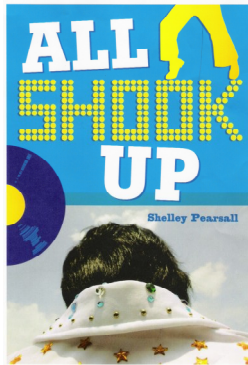

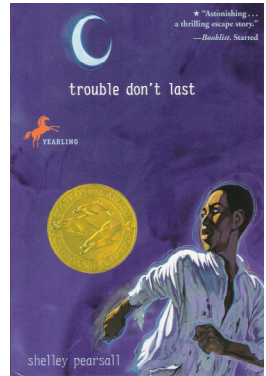

Winner of the Scott O'Dell Medal for Historical Fiction

Bank Street College of Education Best Book of the Year Selection

A suspenseful story of the Underground Railroad which immerses readers in the emotional journey of two runaways — one young and one old. "Astonishing." -- Booklist, starred.

Curriculum connections: Underground Railroad, African-American History, Civil War.

Recommended for Grades 4 to 8. NOW AVAILABLE IN AUDIOBOOK.

ALL SHOOK UP

Junior Library Guild selection

The King of Rock and Roll lives! And he's Josh's dad. A hilarious novel about a teenage boy and his father. A fun choice for summer reading or find out how to do an all-school read aloud of the book at www.onebookoneday.com.

CROOKED RIVER

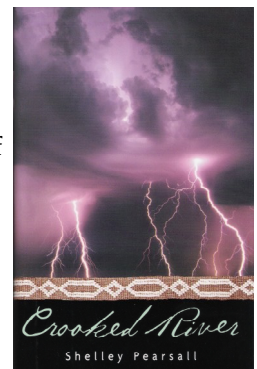

Great Lakes Book Award Finalist

The dramatic true story of an 1812 murder trial. Told in the alternating voices of thirteen-year-old girl and a Chippewa Indian on trial for his life.

"Outstanding." -- Kirkus

Curriculum connections: Early Settlement, Native American cultures, Poetry

Recommended for Grades 5 to 8.

JUMP INTO THE SKY

National Council for the Social Studies (NCSS) Notable Book

The story of a father and son, a secret World War II mission, and a summer of smoke and fire. JUMP INTO THE SKY is the first fiction book for youth to feature the mission of an elite black paratrooper unit in the war. Booklist, starred review.

Curriculum connections: World War II, Civil Rights, Historical Fiction

Recommended for Grades 6 to 8

Shelley's books are available through major retail, educational and independent booksellers, and Amazon.com. Free teaching materials can be found at www.shelleypearsall.com/for-teachers

